

1. Based on the theme that: “Add to Cart” and “Favorite” buttons are close together, an insight is: Users need clearer spacing or visual separation to prevent mis clicks and improve task accuracy.(P2)
2. Based on the theme that: frustrated about the hit points for delivery feature and payment so small frustrated about the hit points for delivery feature and payment so small, an insight is: Users need larger, more accessible touch areas for critical actions like choosing delivery or payment methods to improve usability and reduce selection errors, especially on mobile devices.(P1)
3. Based on the theme that: confused where to add the address an insight is: The address input section needs clearer visibility or guidance within the checkout flow so users can easily identify where to provide delivery details without hesitation or backtracking. (P0)
4. Based on the theme that: need the checkout confirmation an insight is: Providing a confirmation screen or message reassures users that their order was successfully placed and reduces uncertainty about payment and delivery status.(P0)
5. Based on the theme that: judged and felt annoyed about cart feature. an insight is: Improve the shopping cart feature so that users can use the feature comfortably.(P1)

